

Course Information

The 44th Southampton Short Course will take place from 21 August – 8 September 2017 at the Hilton Hotel, Southampton.

While unrivalled in intensity, the Maritime Law Short Course has a strong social dimension. A number of social engagements are arranged to complement the training sessions, including a welcome reception, a trip around Southampton harbour and the Solent, a farewell dinner and numerous opportunities for weekend activities, all of which contribute to the course's friendly and informal atmosphere. It is a long established tradition for delegates from previous courses to organise reunions to keep in touch with the global network of professionals met through the course.

The course fee includes morning coffee, three course lunch, afternoon tea, evening dinner and accommodation from Monday morning to Friday afternoon of each week, including breakfast Tuesday - Friday. The course fee does not include any meals taken between Friday afternoon and Monday morning, nor accommodation for Friday, Saturday or Sunday nights, although this can be arranged with the Hilton at special rates.

The Maritime Law Short Course at Southampton has been providing innovative maritime law training to delegates from around the world for the last 43 editions. As the only comprehensive residential course available on maritime law in the UK, the course combines a top quality learning environment with world leading expertise.

21 August – 8 September 2017

Join us for three intensive weeks of in depth study and find out why we believe we provide the world's leading maritime law course. The fusion of academic excellence and practical insight provided by our leading scholars, industry professionals and legal practitioners, ensures a rigorous dissection of the legal issues affecting today's shipping industry, as well as a crucial pragmatic advantage for the delegates.

The course pioneers an interactive approach to training, including question and answer sessions and small group discussions in addition to traditional seminars. Delegates will work in an environment where they are best able to engage with this ever changing area of law and will train with others from major shipping law firms, maritime operators, traders and P&I Clubs. The perfect balance between collaborative case study work and social events, offers a unique occasion to forge connections across all of the maritime professions.

The provision of the latest legal materials places delegates at the forefront of the industry's developments, guaranteeing an enduring benefit for all the participants and their organisations.
